Request For Withdrawal of A Notice of Abandonment

In response to the notice of abandonment dated 27 April 1998, Applicants request that the application be reinstated for the reasons that follow:

REMARKS

After receiving the above-mentioned Notice of Abandonment Applicants' attorney checked his docket and determined that a timely response had been prepared and filed. Applicants' then called the Examiner Mr Carl D. Price and explained that a response had been timely filed. The Examiner asked for proof including a copy of the return receipt card. The Applicants' attorney then FAXED a copy of the return receipt card together with the first and last page of the Amendment and called the Examiner to explain that the Amendment had one number in the Serial No. changed.

The Examiner explained that the Amendment had not come to him otherwise he would have found the apparent error. The Examiner requested that a request to withdraw the notice of Abandonment be filed together with a true copy of the Amendment as filed. The Examiner said he would check to see if the Amendment was in the file of USSN 08/538,866.
